Kes Gray (children's author and founder):

Some years ago, my sick young son was tucked up in bed, feeling very sorry for himself indeed.

I sat beside him, and wondered how I could cheer him up.

"Shall I tell you who's poorly too?" I said.

He nodded.

So I told him about Cynthia the Centipede.

He began to smile.

So I told him about Pedro the Penguin and Morgan the Mole and Connie the crocodile.

And he smiled some more.

And that was the start of Get Well Friends...
